Walk into this home and you become delightfully unaware of the outside world.

With thoughtful focus on the creation of zones whilst maintaining a feeling of space, it feels like your very own resort style bungalow.

Hidden from street view behind a private wall you may open the curtains from your refreshingly spacious master bedroom to view a secluded courtyard complete with water feature. Roller shutters and security screens throughout ensure confidence in your security, a front gate camera lets you know who's there.

Originally designed with four bedrooms, one bedroom is now fitted out as an office, ideal if you work from home or require a study area.

A home for all reasons, only meters down the road from a child care center, in close proximity to shopping centres and the beach, move the family in and live it up.

Nuts n bolts;
